2018 Q3 DEALMAKERS NEWSLETTER

CONCIERGE SERVICE

Society Awards brings superior, white glove service to the financial services marketplace. Building off of our background servicing the most prestigious firms in the world, we have developed a deep understanding of the complex needs of bulge-bracket, middle-market, and boutique financial institutions. Our processes and exclusive product lines make effortless the process of ordering a deal toy.

From design creation to order fulfillment, Society Awards expertly guides you through every step. We value each of our client relationships. Our primary goal is to foster a long term partnership built on trust. We accomplish this by providing unparalleled service and results.

RECENT PROJECTS

When our creative team takes on a new deal toy project, we perform in depth research and take the time to learn about your client.

OUR NEW YORK SHOWROOM

In addition to creating the highest quality deal toys in the financial services sector, Society Awards is responsible for manufacturing the most iconic awards in the entertainment business. Pictured above in our New York showroom are some of the prestigious awards that we make. From left to right: the American Music Awards, Golden Globes statuette, Emmy, MTV VMA Moonperson, and iHeartRadio Music Award.

When you want to impress your client with top notch presentation and prestige, we are the only partner to consider. There is intrinsic value in a deal gift created by the brand known for creating works of art for the most famous business titans and movie stars.

SOCIETY AWARDS WINS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS AWARDS

Each year Society Awards earns honors for our design and marketing work. This is an accomplishment unique to our firm. We are very honored to earn the awards that we make. Among these honors we recently earned two Stevie International Business Awards.

Our CEO David Moritz is honored with a bronze trophy for "Entrepreneur of the Year, Manufacturing." The second honor is for our Nambé + Society Awards collection, which won for "Best New Product or Service of the Year, B2B."

RECENT PROJECTS

Whether you are looking for a highly complex design or something inspired by classic minimalism, Society Awards will deliver the most impressive finished product.

UNPARALLELED PARTNERSHIPS

Society Awards is recognized as the global leader in custom gift design. This limited edition piece was designed for an exclusive Patrón collaboration with world renowned fashion designer John Varvatos. Our team crafted this iconic rock n' roll bottle stopper to look like a guitar head.
